Wife WATKINS, MARY ELLEN

GEORGE WILLIAM FRISBY

George William Frisby was born October 14, 1876, in Coalville, Utah, and died November 2, 1954, son of Lorenzo Frisby and Charlott Swetting.

He married Mary Ellen Watkins July 4, 1899. She was born August 2, 1882, in Midway, Utah, daughter of John Thomas Watkins and Mary Maria Clift.

They had 16 children.

In the year 1918 George and Mary Ellen

BEAUTIFUL UPON THE MOUNTAINS 358

Watkins moved from Heber City to Duchesne County. There George was made foreman of the construction work of widening the one-way road up Indian Canyon to a two-way highway. And their eldest son, George Lorenzo Frisby, called Ren, drove eight head of horses on the grader at the age of 17, while his father worked the grader. The next spring he widened the road up over Blue Bench and on to Talmage and to Mountain Home. The family was living in Talmage, on a farm, and in the spring of 1921 the family moved back to Duchesne. Here George took the contract and hauled Duchesne's first electric poles. He and his sons cut and hauled them from the Blue Bell mountains over Blue Bench and into Duchesne, all by horse and wagon, using the long poles for reaches and a long lever and rope connected to the back wheels for a break. Cliff Frisby, then about 14 or 15 years of age, worked the break, while his brother, W. J. Bill, drove the four head of horses on the one wagon. Their father drove the other team of four horses, and Paul, then about 12 years of age, took care of the break rope.

In the fall of 1922, George sub-contracted the job of building and widening the highway through Strawberry Valley to the head of Daniels Canyon. Through the summer of 1923 his family lived in tents in various locations in Strawberry Valley. There is a cut through a hill where the highway leaves the edge and scene of the lake to go east on to Soldier Creek, which is called Frisby Cut.

In the fall of 1923 the family moved back to Heber and in the spring of 1924 George was made road supervisor and road foreman of Wasatch County, where he and his sons worked over every road in Wasatch County, helping to widen the Daniels Canyon highway. Then, when the then Governor Maw was in office, Bishop Henry T. Coleman of Midway took over the job of road supervisor for Wasatch County, and Paul Frisby worked at construction jobs in Wasatch County seven years steady and still does construction work when he can get the jobs.

His wife, Mary E. Frisby, and 12 children survive him.
